- FLAGSHIP 2019: Cadets and Parents: Last drill we talked about the possibility of Falcon Division attending the annual Flagship competition hosted by Gosnold Division at Joint Base Cape Cod. For those unfamiliar, Flagship is a Friday night to Sunday evening weekend where multiple units from the region come together and have a friendly competition in activities such as knot tying, military drill, first aid, and more. It is being held Friday, April 26th through Sunday, April 28th and is our normally scheduled drill weekend. The cost will vary depending upon transportation and organizational needs but will be somewhere around $65-$100 per cadet. This is not mandatory but is something we need to start planning for if the unit wishes to attend. Parents, please have a discussion with your cadets about your desires and abilities to attend.
